Notice to Merchants.

FORWARDING OFFICE S. C. R. R. Co.
CHARLESTON, March 16, 1861.

THE South Carolina Railroad Company having determined to discontinue this department of the service, the undersigned, who has been the forwarding Agent of the Company for the last four or five years, has associated with him the Chief Clerk in the department, and, under the name of GANTT & STONY, will continue to RECEIVE and FORWARD such articles as may be consigned to his care. He trusts, by strict personal attention, to retain a very liberal share of the business of the department.

Parties are reminded that all goods now reaching this port from points beyond the Confederate States of America, must be entered at the Custom House, and that duties are payable on such as are not purchased on or before the 28th February last, and laden on shipboard on or before the 15th March instant, save such as are on the free list. It is therefore necessary that remittances be made to pay the duties where duties are payable, AND IN ALL CASES TO COVER THE EXPENSE OF CUSTOM HOUSE ENTRY, WHETHER THE GOODS ARE FREE OR NOT. Prompt compliance will prevent delay and expense, as all articles not entered and permitted will be stored by the Custom House officers. The South Carolina Railroad Company will advance, as heretofore, the charges of freight, drayage and warfage, but not the expenses connected with the Custom House.

Rates of charges for forwarding will be very moderate, and may be had on application to GANTT & STONY, to whom all business communications should be addressed.

The undersigned refers to the officers of the South Carolina Railroad Company, to the customers of the Forwarding Department, and to all merchants of standing in the city of Charleston, and respectfully solicits a liberal share of patronage. JAMES L. GANTT.

A CARD TO THE PUBLIC.

THE NEWBERN

Daily and Weekly Progress.

IT IS ALREADY KNOWN TO THE PUBLIC that the unceremonious entrance of Burnside into Newbern on Friday last has compelled the temporary suspension of the PROGRESS. This was a barbarous and villanious proceeding of old Burnside, inasmuch as it has deprived the public of the advantages of a good paper, besides the inconvenience to the citizens of Newbern.

By the discomfiture of our arms at Newbern, I have lost everything I had in the world—presses, type, and stock and other office material and furniture and other property of all kinds, is all gone —but still I hope to be able to make arrangements at an early day to issue the PROGRESS at some point not very remote from the old stand; this will depend however upon the extent to which Burnside is able to penetrate the bowels of the land.

Having lost all I have, I must urge all who are indebted to the PROGRESS office to make immediate settlement. Though in the army my address will be for the present, Goldsboro, N. C.

☞ Papers in the State that receive the PROGRESS in exchange will please copy or notice this card. J. L. PENNINGTON.

THIRTY DOLLARS REWARD,

WILL be given for the apprehension and delivery of David Reid, who deserted Company E., 34th Regiment, North Carolina Troops, at Camp Mangum, near Raleigh, N. C., 13th January, 1862.—Said Reid is supposed to be thirty-seven years of age, five feet eleven inches high, sandy hair, blue eyes, red complexion and down look, nothing promising indicated in his appearance. Said Reid's residence is posed to be lurking. Bring him in and receive the money.

As a means of Advertising we are confident that great advantages can be obtained through this establishment, hence we embrace this opportunity to inform our friends and the Mercantile communities on the Seaboard, (Charleston and Wilmington,) that our facilities for circulating their business Notices throughout Western North Carolina and the adjoining Districts in South Carolina are extensive and complete.

PROSPECTUS OF THE HILLSBOROUGH RECORDER,

DEVOTED TO

POLITICS, AGRICULTURE, MISCELLANY, GENERAL NEWS.

PUBLISHED BY

DENNIS HEARTT.

HILLSBOROUGH, N. C.

WITH the present volume the RECORDER commenced the fortieth year of its existence, the first number having been issued the 10th of February, 1820; during all which time we have labored to make our paper interesting and useful, and we hope that in these particulars we have not been altogether unsuccessful. It has been our wish to make the RECORDER a good Family Paper, devoted to Politics, Agriculture, Miscellany, General News, &c., with a view to the entertainment and improvement of the farmers and citizens of the circle in which it is distributed. Our Agricultural department we endeavor to fill with the best selections we can make from all sources, giving preference to such as will be of practical use to the farmer and cultivator; and in this particular we hope to make the RECORDER as valuable to the agriculturist as any periodical of a purely agricultural character. In our Miscellaneous department, we shall continue to be, as we have always been, careful to select such articles as will have a tendency not only to amuse, but to improve the mind and heart. While we shall be thankful to receive well-written articles to adorn our columns, we are not so ambitious of originality as not to prefer selected matter of superior merit, to loosely-written and ill-digested articles, though ornamented at the top with the coveted words—"Written expressly for the RECORDER." In our News department we shall take especial pains to present to our readers the latest intelligence; and to enable us to do so we have facilities equal to those enjoyed in any portion of the State, except those favored with telegraphic communication.

The Edgecombe Farm Journal.

THE subscriber will commence on or about the 1st of September, 1860, the publication of a monthly journal in Tarboro', to be devoted to the plantation and rural interests of North Carolina in particular, and of the South generally.

Edgecombe having long since been acknowledged as the model farming county of North Carolina, we feel that there is no locality better suited, and none more justly entitled, to the source of publication of a first class agricultural paper than Tarboro'. It is to be called

"The Edgecombe Farm Journal,"

And will contain original and selected articles upon Agriculture, Horticulture, Floriculture, Household Arts, Rural Architecture, Zoology, &c., &c.

It will be published with new type and clear white paper, in a neat quarto form.

The price of subscription has been made so low as to place the publication within reach of every one.

PROSPECTUS OF THE STATE JOURNAL.

HAVING become the proprietor of the Democratic Press, I have merged that paper into the STATE JOURNAL, which will be published Semi-Weekly and Weekly.

The STATE JOURNAL will advocate Democratic principles in the broadest sense, and will support and defend Democratic measures and their advocates as they are presented, and as occasion may require. In other essentials it will be my aim to make the paper, what its name denotes, a State Journal—eschewing all sectional considerations and working for the entire State and her common interests.

As soon as arrangements can be made, the whole paper shall be re-modeled and printed with new type, on good paper, and in a superior manner.

The Editorial department will be properly attended to in its various branches, and will speak for itself. Neither labor nor expense will be spared in the management of the paper.

The terms of the State Journal will be as follows:

Semi-Weekly, per annum	$400
Weekly	200

These terms will be insisted upon invariably in advance. No name will be put upon the list without the money, and all papers will be discontinued at the expiration of the time for which they have been paid, unless the subscription be renewed. I am satisfied, from years of experience, that upon no other footing can any newspaper hope to succeed.

Advertisements of a proper character will be inserted at the following rates:

One square, first insertion	$100
Each subsequent insertion	25 cents.

A liberal deduction on these rates for yearly advertisers in the Semi-Weekly. In the Weekly edition the full rates will be charged.

A NORTH CAROLINA PAPER

THE TIMES;

A large Eight-Page Weekly, published in Greensboro.

$2.00 a year; $1.00 for six months.

THE TIMES contains weekly forty columns of choice matter, specially adapted to the family circle. It is neither sectarian nor political, but by being courteous to all sects and parties, it is the constant aim of the publishers to present in its columns whatever may elevate the people and enrich the State. The publishers would earnestly appeal to the families of North Carolina to give THE TIMES a trial; try it for six months, to see if it be not as well to patronize home papers, as those from abroad; to build up home interests and a State pride, and to scatter our substance and our energies among strangers. Give THE TIMES a trial and then let it stand upon its merits.

WHAT IS SAID OF THE TIMES.

"The Times I regard as the very first of our Southern literary Weeklies."—Rev. C. F. Deems.

"I know of no Weekly published anywhere, that is so deserving of public patronage as the Times." —Rev. J. E. Edwards.

"There is no pandering to a vitiated taste—every article is of a moral tendency, and calculated both to amuse and instruct."—Wilmington Herald

"One of the handsomest weekly papers published in the Union."—Spirit of the Age.

"Let the people of North Carolina encourage their own newspapers."—Raleigh Standard.

The Literary Paper of the South

"EVERY FAMILY SHOULD READ IT"

THE TIMES.

THE LARGEST! THE CHEAPEST! THE BEST! ILLUSTRATED SOUTHERN FAMILY PAPER!

THE TIMES is neither political nor sectarian, but is the constant aim of the Editors to fill its columns with the choisest Historical, Literary and Family reading, and with a large selection of all the news of the day, both foreign and domestic.

The fifth volume commences with the new year 1860. Engagements have been made to make this the most brilliant year in the history of THE TIMES. It will commence with Three Beautiful Prize Stories.

Its illustrations will be increased; and its typographical appearance will be improved by a still neater dress. The Publishers are determined to keep pace with the improvements of the age: their motto is "PROGRESSION," and as the circulation of THE TIMES enlarges each year, they are determined to add new attractions to its columns, and make it the literary paper of the South. With these inducements the Publishers confidently expect several thousand increase in circulation.

But as additional incentives to the friends of the South to encourage their own literary and family paper, in which they will find none of that impure and immoral reading which sometimes they get from abroad, the Publishers of THE TIMES offer

$2,500 IN PREMIUMS

For subscribers to commence with the new volume and the new year. THE TIMES is printed weekly on a large sheet, fine paper, at $2 a year, in advance. For specimen numbers and circulars address the Publishers.

PROSPECTUS OF THE CHARLESTON MERCURY

A POLITICAL, COMMERCIAL AND LITERARY NEWSPAPER.

PUBLISHED DAILY AND TRI-WEEKLY

THE MERCURY gives daily reports of the Market and Marine Intelligence in Charleston, and of Charleston commerce in the leading seaports of the world. The Weekly Prices Current is made up with much care, and from the most reliable sources. Its connection with the "Associated Press" insures the latest intelligence by Telegraph and the earliest news by Steamers from Europe. It has an able and accomplished Correspondent in London (a gentleman connected with the editorial staff of the London Times,) and regular Correspondents in New-York, Washington, Key West and Havana. The monthly New York Fashion Letters and weekly letters on Life in Washington are additional attractions in favor of its lady readers. Its literary notices, from the pen of a gentleman who occupies perhaps the highest position among the literary men of the South, are discriminating and comprehensive.—Attention is paid to all matters of general concern, especially those in reference to the Planting and Agricultural interest, and to the current news of the day. Great care is taken that nothing shall appear in its columns which should be excluded from the family circle.

The political creed of the MERCURY consists in the principles of the Democratic Party, as laid down in the Virginia and Kentucky Resolutions of 1798 and 1799—the Sovereignty of the States; a strict construction of the Federal Constitution by the General Government, the agent of the States; Free Trade, and an economical Administration of the Government. Its policy is the Union of the Southern States in maintaining their rights.

A corps of the best practical and scientific Agricultural writers have been secured, and its Editorial department will be under the care of one of the best Farmers in the land.

The Cash system will be rigidly adhered to, and no name will be entered on our books until the subscription is paid.

Address R. M. STOKES,

To the People of North Carolina.

At the request of President Davis, I have undertaken to collect all of the arms now in the hands of private citizens of our State. For that purpose I have been invested with authority to borrow, purchase, or, if necessary, to impress them. I am satisfied that it will never be necessary to resort to the use of the last named power. Patriots of North Carolina, our soil is invaded, and though we have men enough to repel the invaders, our men are useless unless they have arms. Upwards of 20,000 stand of arms are now lying useless in our houses; these arms should be collected and placed in the hands of our noble defenders. None but a craven or disloyal citizen will refuse to comply with this requisition. I will immediately appoint suitable agents to go through every county in the State, empowered to borrow, purchase, or, if necessary, impress arms; but in the meantime let me entreat all true patriots to send in all of their muskets, rifles and double-barrel shot guns (good, bad or indifferent,) to the sheriffs of the different counties, whom I do hereby authorise to receive and pay for them agreeably to the attached schedule of prices, and draw on me for the amount necessary.

For good rifles and muskets, $13 and $20 each, according to value; good double-barrel shot guns from $13 to $38, according to value; other arms and parts of arms according to valuation.

I have also been requested to purchase old scrap iron, whether cast or wrought, and of all weights, for which I will pay for the former 1½ cents per pound; for the latter 4 cents. W. S. ASHE.

REPLY TO "BOANERGES."

MR. BRITTON:—An "individual" calling himself "Boanerges," has made himself notorious, by appearing in the columns of the BULLETIN, in defense of the distillers and their infamous traffic. Because wronged women have been driven by stupid and drunken legislators, to take things in their own hands and smashed in the heads of a few "unoffending whiskey barrels," they must be compared to mischievous mobs and the women of the French Revolution.—There is a great national difference between the women of France, and the women of America; were not this the case and women were possessed of the same excitable temperament which urged the women of France to commit deeds of blood, then, there would be the shadow of an excuse for "Boanerges" immagination being wrought to such a pitch as to conceive there was another reign of terror not far distant. He may quiet his fears; his head is still safe, (so far as the women are concerned,) notwithstanding it may sometimes become unsteady in consequence of having imbibed some of the contents of an unoffending whiskey barrel. If B. wants the laws of his country respected and obeyed, there is no better way of having it done than by aiding the country women in putting down the distilleries; for are they not the cause of more broken hearts, broken heads and broken laws than any other agency? "Idle and in want of employment." That was the unkindest act of all! Where has Boanerges been since the war begun that he thinks the women of the South are in want of employment, and in consequence have become mischief makers and law breakers? Not in the camp surely, or he would have had unmistakable evidence that they had been employed, and that to a good purpose. The stitching, knitting, spinning, and weaving with which we have been "idly" passing our time, shall never be used to clothe the form of a drunkard while we have a hand to raise or a voice to speak against it.

Not having the honor to belong to the noble band of women who so bravely and patriotically took things in their own hands I cannot but applaud them, and hope they will continue the good work until there is not a drop of the precious stuff left.

IDLE HANNAH.

P. S.—There is a Militia Colonel up here in the brushy mountains, a member of the late malicious Legislature, a young, able-bodied, unmarried man, who was lately heard to say he did not blame men for not wanting to go to the war; that it was very hard for them to leave their families to go and face the cannons mouth. At the same time this brave man (who has not volunteered,) has four large stills in opperation, and is retailing spirits to these same men, while he drinks it himself by the wholesale. What do you think of that Mr. Editor?

Our Enemies.

The Confederate States have four distinct classes of enemies:

1. The government and people of the United States are our enemies. But they are open enemies. They meet us upon the field with arms in their hands, and make war upon us. They shoot down our soldiers, burn our houses, destroy our property, and steal our negroes. We know where to find, and how to deal with such an enemy.

2. The second class of enemies are the croakers—the long-faced men of faint hearts and weak nerves, who go up and down the country, seeking to impart their own despondency and cowardice to all with whom they come in contact. Weak of purpose, faint of heart, and cowardly in spirit, they would destroy the confidence of everybody else, and abandon everything to the Federals. We would suggest to have petticoats upon these miserable creatures, and curls hung about their craven foreheads, but for the insult we should thereby offer to our brave women.

3. The speculators and extortioners constitute the third class of enemies. These characters operate upon the necessities of the country. They are interested in the war, insomuch as it enables them to make money. Beyond this, they care but little who wins or who loses. They set not fixed price upon what they have to sell. Their price is all they can get. The purchaser may be a poor man, a needy woman, a destitute soldier or the widow of some brave fellow who has fallen in battle with his feet to the foe. Still, if the extortioner can grind out of her five dollars per bushel for salt, he takes it; if ten dollars, he takes it; if a thousand dollars, still he would take it. As between him and a Lincolnite, we have infinitely more respect for the latter. The one is an open enemy, and meets you on the field; the other is a secret foe who takes advantage of your necessities, and seeks to undermine the cause by oppressing the people and sapping the foundations of our strength.

4. The fourth and last class of enemies to the Confederate cause are those pimps and operators in money who seek to depreciate the currency of the government. These people worship at the shrine of the golden calf. The success of our struggle may depend upon the confidence of our people in the currency provided by the government; yet, if they can gain anything by destroying that confidence they do not hesitate to do it. They are as ready to speculate on the faith of the people and the patriotism of the country as an honest man would be upon the products of the land. Place the success of our cause in one scale and greed and gain in the other, and they would not be long in deciding which they would take. The man who tears up a railway track is no greater enemy to the public than the one who destroys the oil by which the machinery is lubricated, and without which it cannot be operated. So, too, the man who destroys the confidence of the public in the currency of the government is as much an enemy as the spy who carries intelligence to the adversary.

Such are the enemies of the Confederate cause. Let them be watched everywhere. They are the aiders and abettors of the North, and should be so regarded and treated.—Memphis Appeal.

"Our Enemies."

We copy in another column a capital article under the above caption from the Memphis Appeal, to which we refer the attention of the reader, and herewith offer, by way of an addenda, our opinion upon the 3d item in the count, which refers to speculators.

Every article we have read upon that class of persons has been so general in its terms that, the hasty reader, is frequently impressed with the idea, it refers to those who sell provisions or merchandise—his regular business—and that he is the heartless speculator because an advance on cost is demanded. This is erronous to a great extent.

We owe much to our merchantile community as a class, although a brace of mean men may be found in every community, who, claiming to be merchants, operate to the injury of the community by advancing the price of produce when offered for sale, because they export it for speculation.

We have a few of that class in Charlotte. We have been credibly informed that there are a few persons now doing business in Charlotte, as merchants, who have deserted the seaboard of this or an adjoining State when their services ought to have been given for its defences, now regularly engaged in buying up Butter, Poultry, Bacon, Eggs, &c., &c.; in small and large quantities, always ready to bid over our fellow citizens and deprive them of the necessaries of life, because they can export their purchases to Charleston or elsewhere and realize exhorbitant profits. Such men are doing more harm in this community than could a company of Lincoln's mean black-hearted soldiers, with guns in their hands. The citizens ought not to allow them to operate any longer in that way.

But, there is another class, which we regard much meaner than those referred to above. Some of them may be found daily upon the public square, huckstering and buying up everything that may be offered for sale upon which they may turn a penny—engaged in no other business—content only upon bleeding this and other communities, by advancing prices at home and piling them up abroad.

Provisions, Butter, Beef, Bacon, chickens and Eggs are collected in any quantity and hurried forward for sale elsewhere, by this class, who are always ready to give a little more than the market price, because they can send their purchases to Charleston and realize almost fabulous profits. By way of illustration:

Prices in Charlotte.		Prices in Charleston.
Bacon,	25 to 30c	Bacon,	50 to 60c.
Lard,	25 " 30	Lard,	45 " 50
Butter,	25 " 30	Butter,	65 " 75
Beef,	10 " 12	Beef,	40 " 50
Fowls,	20 " 25	Fowls,	62 " 75
Turkeys,	75 " 100	Turkeys,	150 " 175
Eggs,	12 " 15	Eggs,	35 " 40

The reader can see the reason why a few lazy mean men are engaged in buying up and exporting abroad provisions needed and thereby causing a daily advance in prices.

We do not blame the farmer, for he has a perfect right to receive all that may be offered for his produce. The fault is solely attributable to the characters referred to above. Stop their operations and families below may send up orders to our merchants which would be filled at greatly reduced figures.

We call upon the Vigilance Committe as protectors of this community, and especially the wives, children and sisters as well mothers of those who have gone to war, to put a stop to the operations of that class of Bats who are engaged in sucking their life blood.

Our merchants, as a class are honorable gentlemen, but they are forced to give prices extremely exhorbitant, and charge accordingly, because they are over-bid by Exporting Speculators. The people must protect themselves.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

TESLOAR HALL,
Charlotte, April 21, 1862.

The citizens having assembled according to previous notice,

On motion, Dr. John H. Gibbon was called to the Chair, and E. Nye Hutchison requested to act as Secretary.

Capt. Wm. Lee Davidson explained the object of the meeting.

Messrs. Wm. Lee Davidson, M. M. Orr and H. L. Alexander were appointed a Committee to prepare Resolutions expressive of the feelings of the community on hearing of the death of Col. ROBERT M. MCKINNEY.

Capt. Davidson (chairman of the committee,) presented the following which were unanimously adopted;

WHEREAS, This community has learned with deep regret the death of Col. ROBERT M. MCKINNEY, in command of the 15th Regiment, North Carolina Troops, and formerly Professor in the North Carolina Military Institute,

Resolved, That we bear testimony to his amiable disposition; to his extensive scientific and literary attainments, while his glorious death is the best evidence of his devotion to the welfare and honor of his country.

Resolved, That we tender to the family and friends of the deceased our sincere sympathy in their irreparable bereavement.

Resolved, That the chairman of this meeting forward a copy of these Resolutions to the family.

Resolved, That the papers of this city be requested to publish the proceedings of this meeting.

JOHN H. GIBBON, Chairman.
E. NYE HUTCHISON, Sec'y.

To the Point.

Gov. Shorter of Alabama, has issued a sharp proclamation on the subject of planting cotton at this juncture. He concludes by "giving notice" as follows: "I shall urge upon the next session of the General Assembly the duty and sound policy of taxing all cotton beyond what may be needed for home consumption and the supply of seed for another year to the full extent of its value and I think it every way probable that persons who will persist in planting the usual crop of cotton, or more than one acre to the hand, will not be allowed to enjoy the fruits of such a selfish and unpatriotic course."

The Fight at South Mills, N. C.

We are indebted to a gentleman in Portsmouth for the subjoined account of the fight at South Mills, N. C., on Saturday last. We learn from a passenger that Capt. McComas of Henningson's artillery, who was killed in the fight, fought with the most determined bravery, cheering his men on and exposing himself with apparent indifference to danger:—Richmond Dispatch.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21.

I have just seen an intelligent member of Col. Wright's 31 Georgia regiment, who was wounded in the battle of South Mill's, and I will give you a hurried sketch of his statement concerning the fight. Three militiamen deserted to the Yankees and gave information of our numbers, situation &c. They landed Friday night a large force and commenced the march. Col. Wright failed to get information of the advance until Saturday morning. He then hurried forward with three companies of infantry, and an Artillery company. Reaching a very large old field, skirted by woods, he sent forward some men and burnt the houses, destroyed the fences, &c. The enemy, variously estimated at from 5,000 to 8,000 soon approached unconscious of the force awaiting them.

As soon as they came within long range, the artillery opened with terrible effect upon them, and after silencing their battery our guns ceased firing, that we might induce them to charge. Thinking that our battery was disabled, they made a furious charge, not knowing there were any infantrymen waiting to receive them. When about 250 yards from us, our men were ordered to fire, and after firing about fifteen rounds, loading on the ground and rising on the knee to fire, the enemy fled off to the right and broke for the woods.

Col. Wright, fearing a flank movement, and not having his wagon, containing the ammunition, retired in good order to our entrenchments. We hear that the enemy have now retreated to their gunboats. Reinforcements have been sent to Col. Wright. He and his men fought with the most determined courage. On our side the loss was from eight to twelve killed, and about thirty wounded. The enemy's loss is estimated at from 300 to 500. All of our wounded were brought off the field but Lieut. Wilson.

T. W. H.

BLIGHT ON THE WHEAT CROP.—We see by articles from editors and correspondents in various portions of the State that the blight has made its appearance in the wheat in some sections. We trust this blight is not general, and that, where it has appeared, the crop may not be materially effected by it. A writer in the Sumter Republican says he is satisfied there will be but little if any wheat raised in that locality, and makes the following suggestion: "I suggest that each farmer plant from two to three acres of good land, in early peas, (the speckled pea is the best,) let them be planted the 1st of May, in 2½ or 3 feet apart; cultivate them well, and in a few weeks they will be matured; upon this crop the farmer can subsist, and thus be able to sell corn to the dependent families. The vines will furnish food for stock. Milch cows and out hogs may be kept in fine order upon the green peas. Having no cotton crop the hands will have ample time to gather them."—Augusta Chronicle.

The report of the Special Committee on the Fort Donelson affair contains a voluminous mass of evidence and documents, explaining the conduct of all the generals engaged, and closing with the following resolution:

Resolved, That the thanks of Congress and the country are justly due to Generals Floyd, Pillow, Buckner and Bushrod Johnson, their subordinate officers and men, for their gallantry, energy, resolution and persistent bravery in the various sanguinary contests with the overwhelming forces of the enemy at Fort Donelson.

Martial law has been declared in Waynesboro', Ga., and all persons entering or leaving that city must have a passport, as we see by a notice in the Waynesboro', South.

[We wish every City, Town and Village in the South will soon be under Martial Law, and every man not engaged in business arrested and severely punished.

There are a few soulless Speculators who keep centry on the corners in Charlotte who would be forced to quit their mean practices.—[ED. BULLETIN.

THE PRISONERS.—The prisoners who arrived yesterday are a rough looking set of fellows, and just as filthy as it is possible for men to be. We understand that they are of Western regiments and mostly of foreign birth. They seem to be very contented with their lot, and have, generally, not the most remote notion of the moral phase of the war. They fought because they had nothing to eat, or any mode of earning something to buy food—went into the army for food—and are very well contented here, where they will be kept out of the way of danger, and the labor which accompanies it. Otherwise, they are not able to tell for what they were in arms against us. In this respect they are the antipodes of the men who compose our army.—Mobile Tribune.

INTERESTING FROM TEXAS.—Brownsville dates to the 20th ult. state that the British frigate Phæton, 56, (not the Rialto) Admiral Teasham, and corvette Berthold, six 80-pounders, Commander Jonquiere, are off the Rio Grande. Admiral Teasham had visited Brownsville, and sympathises with our cause. He says his mission is to keep the mouth of the Rio Grande open to the trade of the world at all hazzards. England is reported to have withdrawn from the alliance against Mexico. A fleet of 800 guns is at Vera Cruz, expecting to sail immediately for New Orleans and the Southern coast.

Gen. FIRST EDITION.

BY TELEGRAPH.

From New Orleans.

Telegraphed expressly for the Bulletin.]

NEW ORLEANS, April 23.

The following official dispatch from Maj. Gen. Lovell to Brig. Genl. Duncan, commanding Fort Jackson:—say to officers and men their heroic fortitude, enduring one of the most Terrific Bombardments known, and courageous skill, which they exercised to crush the enemy whenever he dared to come from under cover, attracts the admiration of all and will be recorded in History as splendid examples for patriots and soldiers. Anxious but confident families and friends are watching their with firm reliance, based on their gallant exhibition thus far made of indomitable courage and great military skill.

The enemy will try your powers of endurance but we believe with no better success than that already experienced.

(Signed) M. LOVELL,
Maj. Gen. Com.

Gen. Duncan's reply to Maj. Gen. Lovell runs thus:—I have to report this morning that the bombardment is still going on furiously. They kept it up furiously by relief of their divisions.

One of their three masted Gun Boats, painted grey came above the point this morning but was struck and retired.

We are hopeful, in good spirits, and I cannot speak in too high praise of all the officers and men. No further casualties to report. Let the people have faith and fortitude and we will not disgrace them.

(signed) J. R. DUNCAN, Brig. Gen.

Important from Nashville.

MOBILE, April 21.

The Tribune of Saturday, says that passengers from Corinth report that a rumor was current there that Nashville had been retaken by Gens. Kirby Smith and Humphrey Marshall. The Tribune credits the report, and says, also, that 4,000 prisoners were taken.

It is believed at Corinth that the enemy was evacuating his position there, and going to the gunboats.

[Although the above is highly gratifying intelligence yet we doubt its correctness.

[ED. BULLETIN.

DIED.

Died, April 13th, ROBERT A. LEE, aged about 60 years.

For years he was truly a child of affliction, having often, suddenly, painful and alarming attacks of a disease unknown to his physicians, which gradually broke down a constitution naturally strong, and terminated in dropsy. He bore his affliction with patience, and towards the last with christian resignation. He was a kind husband and father, and an obliging neighbor, and, we trust, has gone to his rest and reward.
